DAY CAMPS & TEAM SERVICES

Day Camps

Mid American Pompon offers pompon teams that are not able to commit to an overnight camp a comparable opportunity to attend a customized Day Camp. Day Camps are led by a trained Mid American Pompon staff member at Mid American Studio or the team's school and are uniquely tailored to the preferences of each individual team.

Camp Includes:

- * Instruction of pom routines chosen by the team from the six original routines taught at overnight camps, which are targeted to the skill level of the team.
- * Instruction of separate kicklines (in addition to a kickline in each routine).
- * A CD of all camp music and count-by-count write-ups for each coach.
- * Valuable advice on jumps, kickline, proper form, stretching, and conditioning.

Cost:

$12 per hour per girl at Mid American Studio.
$15 per hour per girl at team's school. Travel fees may apply.

Camps can be scheduled for one day or multiple days with a minimum of four hours per day.

TEAM & STUDIO SERVICES

Coach to Coach Training

Director of Mid American Pompon, Julie Hobbs-Julian, offers coaches one-on-one training tailored to meet the needs of the coach and the team. Julie has gained her expertise from over 25 years of involvement in pompon as a pom coach, dance teacher, coach trainer, and director of Mid American Pompon. Training may include coaching strategies and tips on organization, how to work with parents and administrators, and constructive critiques on past routines.

Cost: $50 per hour.

Team Training

Teams can take advantage of Mid American Pompon's pom experts by scheduling a team training session. During these sessions, teams will be provided constructive critiques and suggestions to help them prepare for camp, the upcoming season, or competition. Trained staff members will help teams clean-up current material, work on skill building and form, increase stamina, and fine-tune pom or dance basics. Sessions can take place at Mid American Studio or at the team's school.

Cost: $75 per hour. Travel fees may apply.

Team Merchandise Sales

Mid American Pompon offers teams a great selection of team merchandise for every need from camp to competition! Merchandise includes poms, cougars, jazz pants, bodysuits, split sole jazz shoes, tights, referrals for uniforms, and much more all at a discounted price.
