10. At WorldStrides, WE NEGOTIATE AND CONTRACT GROUP PRICING. The package price for trip components (such as hotel, air, attractions, meals) is determined with all applicable components included, divided by the number of participants. Typically, we are unable to subtract any part for an individual as it would affect the price that everyone else is paying. If you have special flight requests (date/time changes, use of frequent flyer miles, upgrades to First class) you will need to make your own flight arrangements and if available, receive a credit for the group flight price. Our goal is to ensure the entire group has a successful and smooth experience, and may not be able to accommodate individual requests for seat assignments, hotel room locations, flight adjustments, etc.
